- Provide resources/training to assist the local church to move toward increased health.
- Assist and resource churches in the development of their individual Mission, Vision and Core Values.

Number of Meetings:

Face to Face meetings scheduled quarterly each year

Monthly (or as needed) WebEx/Video call Meetings.

Counsel and Care – Accountability and Encouragement

It is the desire of the Church Health Team to connect with elders, at least annually, for encouragement and questions. Training videos will also be created and distributed for elders.

Church organizational model samples are available at www.efcer.org/churchhealth.

Counsel and Care – Discipline of Church Leaders

In the event that an elder or leader of the congregation is exhibiting inappropriate behavior, or is in conflict with the lead pastor or other leader, the following steps should be taken and documented:

- The lead pastor, along with an elder or elected leader, should meet with the individual to attempt to resolve the situation.
- In cases where the situation cannot be quickly resolved at the local level, the Church Health Director should be contacted for advice and/or support in resolving the issue.
- In cases where behavior or conflict threatens the overall ministry of the church further action should be considered in accordance with paragraph 305 (Churches in Crisis) of the Faith and Practice.

Counsel and Care – Churches in Crisis

The following procedures are put into place in order to better serve churches that are in crisis in a consistent, Christ-honoring manner.

1. ASSIGNMENT PHASE – If a crisis situation becomes evident, the Church Health Team should investigate the situation. The Church Health Director or Church Health Team Leader should be the lead investigator. In most situations, a team should be developed of two or three people, as this allows for at least two witnesses and perspectives in dealing with the crisis (in line with I Timothy 5:19).
2. INVESTIGATIVE PHASE – The investigator(s) should gather relevant information from all involved parties. Investigators should strive to evaluate all relevant aspects of the crisis so as to come to a complete view of all contributing factors.
3. EVALUATION PHASE – After collecting as much relevant data as possible, the investigator(s) should evaluate the crisis to determine the appropriate steps to take.
4. ACTION PHASE – The investigator(s) is/are empowered to develop a plan of action consistent with the prior evaluation. In the event that the crisis involves circumstances of legal or moral turpitude, the investigator(s) is/are empowered to immediately remove those in suspected violation, pending further investigation by the Church Health Team.

If the investigator(s) find it necessary to apply Faith & Practice paragraph 305b, the Church Health Team must be contacted as soon as possible.

If the investigator finds it necessary to apply Faith and Practice paragraph 305c, then the Church Health Team must be contacted prior to taking this action and included in the decision to make a plan of action.

5. RESOLUTION PHASE – When the crisis is sufficiently resolved, the Church Health Team should be notified that this progress has been accomplished. After each resolution, the team should debrief with an eye towards improving future crisis interventions.

Guide for Renewing Lead Pastor Agreement

Introduction

When the current pastoral agreement with your lead pastor will be concluding within the next 12 months, important decisions must be made by the church and the pastor regarding the potential continuation of the pastoral call. This document has been prepared by the Church Health Team to serve as a guide for your church in walking through the process of evaluating and potentially renewing the call of your lead pastor.

First things:

1. Commit to pray for wisdom and guidance as both the lead pastor and the local church seek the Lord's direction in this critical decision.
2. Know that your Church Health Director will walk you through every step of the process of assessment and reaching unity related to pastoral leadership.
3. Review paragraph 342 of the Faith and Practice for additional guidance related to renewal of the lead pastor call.

The following items are included in this packet:

- A checklist to help you work through the process. We encourage you to follow through the checklist one step at a time.
- Lead Pastor Assessment Surveys statements to be used in the renewal process (these will be administered electronically).
- Copy of a Pastoral Agreement that might be used by your congregation after the call has been renewed.

Please feel free to make copies of this packet. Digital copies are also available on our website at www.efcer.org/churchhealth.

You are involved in an important task for Evangelical Friends Church – Eastern Region. May God give you wisdom and blessing as you fulfill your role in this renewal process.

Checklist for Renewal of Lead Pastor Call

1. _____ Contact the Church Health Director.

Contact the Church Health Director at least 6 months prior to the conclusion of the current call with your lead pastor. The Church Health Director will assist the Elder Board and the congregation with the Pastoral Assessment and provide needed input on the renewal process. The Church Health Director will also assist in the final determination related to possible renewal of the pastoral call.

2. _____ Obtain Assessment Surveys from the Church Health Director.

The Lead Pastor Renewal Assessment surveys will be provided to you by the Church Health Director. The surveys will be administered electronically through an appropriate and anonymous electronic platform. There will be separate surveys provided to the Lead Pastor, Church Ministry Staff, Elders, and the Congregation.

3. _____ Determine who will be asked to complete the congregation surveys.

Each Elder Board may select the class of attendees to be given the congregation electronic survey to complete. For example: some churches may wish to allow all attendees to complete a survey. Some may wish to only survey members. Still others may wish to survey everyone but have member responses tabulated separate from non-member. The choice is up to the local church.

4. _____ Determine process for providing options for individuals without a computer or without internet access.

We recognize that not every individual will have the capability or opportunity to complete the online survey. It is recommended that each church provide a computer with internet access and personal assistance, if needed, to take the survey. The availability of the on-site computer access should be appropriately promoted within the congregation.

5. _____ Provide information necessary to everyone on how to complete the online survey and set a deadline for completion.

Completed surveys are received directly by the Church Health Director at the Evangelical Friends Headquarters where they will be tabulated and summarized for evaluation.

6. _____ Review Survey Results with Church Health Director

The Church Health Director will present the summarized findings to the Elder Board and the lead pastor.

7. _____ Determine next steps.

Depending on the results of the surveys and the follow-up presentation by the Church Health Director, one of the following actions outlined in the Faith and Practice Paragraph 342 v., vi., or vii. will take place:

- i. Complete a church assessment recommended by the Church Health Director if there is not consensus regarding the continuation of the pastoral call,
- ii. Continue the pastoral call for an additional four years,
- iii. Discontinue the pastoral call, or
- iv. Convene a Congregational Meeting to discern the continuation of the pastoral call.

8. _____ Steps if continued call is not offered or if it is declined.

If the church determines to not continue the call of the lead pastor, or if a continued call is offered and turned down, the church must begin a search for a new lead pastor. At that point, the church should contact the Church Health Director and begin the process of a search for a new lead pastor as outlined in the Guide for Securing a Lead Pastor.

Guide for Securing a Lead Pastor

Introduction

Your pastor has just resigned or your congregation voted to make a change in pastoral leadership. What should be done? This document has been prepared to serve as a guide for your church leadership in securing pastoral leadership.

First things:

- 1) Commit to pray for a smooth transition and the right pastor to be called.
- 2) Know that your Church Health Director will walk you through every step of the process of securing new pastoral leadership.
- 3) Take the Church Health Assessment. This tool will guide you with self-knowledge which will best prepare you for your next pastor.
- 4) Consider an interim pastor to allow adequate time for transition.

The following items are included in this packet:

- A checklist to help you work through the process. We encourage you to follow through the checklist one step at a time.
- A Church Information Form (CIF) that should be filled out and copies sent to the Church Health Director.
- Copy of a Pastoral Agreement that might be used by your congregation after the call has been given and approved (and accepted).

Most of the materials enclosed are easily removed for use. Digital copies are also available on our website at www.efcer.org/churchhealth. Feel free to copy any of the materials you might need.

You are involved in an important task for Evangelical Friends Church – Eastern Region. May God give you wisdom and blessing as you fulfill your role in this process.

Checklist

1. _____ Contact the Church Health Director

The Church Health Director will provide your church with a list of candidates available to pastor your church. Knowing the background of your church and the candidates available, the Director will consult with the local church about the individuals on the list and share with you the staff recommendations. He will serve as a counselor to your church as you make this important decision. He will recommend an assessment at this time and perhaps an interim pastor if that is desirable.

2. _____ Complete the Church Information Form (CIF) (www.efcer.org/cif) and return it to Church Health Director as soon as possible.

The church is responsible to mail or e-mail one copy of the profile to any candidates with whom they are communicating.

3. _____ Church leadership or search team will review pastoral profiles and select individuals to be interviewed once they have been vetted by the Leadership Development Team.
4. _____ Contact your first selected candidate and set dates a date for an interview.

After the top candidate is chosen for an interview, the church search team or person responsible for securing a lead pastor should contact the candidate by telephone and determine if the candidate / candidates are interested in interviewing for the position. A time and date should be determined and this information shared with the Church Health Director. It is suggested that interviews be scheduled within as short a period as possible. Hospitality for candidate and any family members that may come along should be carefully planned. The church is responsible for travel, meals, and lodging expenses for the candidate.

5. _____ Conduct the interview

It is suggested that an agenda be prepared prior to the interviews. Be specific about salary and benefits offered. This would include moving expenses, base salary, housing, hospitalization, pension, vacation, business expenses, etc. Here are some topics you may want to explore with a prospective pastor:

- What is the style or emphasis of ministry of the candidate?
- What are the candidate's strengths and weaknesses in professional ministry?
- How does candidate view pastoral visitation?
- What are the candidate's expectations of the congregation?
- What does the candidate see as the purpose of morning worship, evening service, and prayer service?

Pastoral Interview Samples

- 1) How do you view your role as a pastor?
- 2) What is your philosophy of ministry?
- 3) What are your expectations for the laity?
- 4) How would you describe your preaching style?
- 5) Describe for us a typical worship service as you see it. What are the ingredients?
- 6) What is your concept of pastoral care, calling, counseling?
- 7) How do you approach evangelism and discipleship in the local church.
- 8) What is the best approach to membership training as you see it?
- 9) How do you preach and teach on holiness?
- 10) Give us some idea of how you see the church being administered (financial, managing people, staff relationships and accountability, delegating).
- 11) Where do you see your greatest opportunity for personal growth?
- 12) How do you feel about your family adapting to a new location?
- 13) How does your spouse feel about ministry?
- 14) What have you found to be your greatest strength and weaknesses?
- 15) What do you expect from church board members?
- 16) What are your personal priorities?
- 17) How do you deal with personal devotions?
- 18) What is your philosophy of youth ministry? How do you work with staff?
- 19) How do you perceive the role of missions in the local church?
- 20) Who do you look up to? What Authors and/or ministry leaders mentor you?
- 21) How would you approach Christian Education?
- 22) Describe your prayer life and how it affects you. What role would prayer take in our church?
- 23) What passages of scripture have leapt off the page and enlightened your heart and mind during the last month?
- 24) Describe a time of brokenness in your life. Do you have any experiences of shattered dreams like Joseph? How did God use the “pit” and “prison” to develop you?
- 25) What is it about our church that appeals to you?
- 26) Why do you want to leave your present position?
- 27) How do you describe your leadership style?
- 28) Is there anything else we should know about you?
- 29) Would you accept this position if it were offered to you?

6. _____ Make a recommendation to the congregation in a called meeting for a ballot vote.

It is suggested that the candidate be introduced to the congregation. This will allow the congregation time to ask questions and gather data so they can vote intelligently. The one presiding would give the background of the candidate. The candidate could give a synopsis of his/her philosophy of ministry and expectations as pastoral leader. Time should be provided for questions to be asked both by congregation and candidate. The church should recommend the candidate they believe to be best suited for the position. It is preferable to invite one candidate at a time.

7. _____ Issue a call

As soon as the congregation reaches a decision, the presiding clerk should inform the Church Health Director and issue a written official call to the prospective pastor. As soon as possible, the presiding clerk should obtain contract forms from the Evangelical Friends Headquarters and fill them out. These forms should be completed and filed as per instructions. Other candidates that were interviewed should be informed of the church's decision.

8. _____ Interview Pastor Leaving Congregation Exit Interview

This interview can provide much valuable data for church leadership. Two items are important at this point: 1) do not attempt to get a pastor to reconsider this decision to resign, and 2) do not argue or debate any issues. This is simply to get information.

The interview agenda could include:

- Where are we strong as a congregation?
- Where are we weak?
- How have we changed since you arrived?
- Did you have any dreams for our congregation that were not fulfilled?

It is important to clarify the relationship which the departing pastor will have with the congregation after he or she leaves. It is suggested that a pastor not return for pastoral services except when invited by the incoming pastor.

Also, this would be a good opportunity to discuss:

- All records to be complete and up-to-date.
- A list of perspective members and new contacts to be given to the Elder of the Spiritual Life Commission.
- Any situations listed that need follow-up. Weddings? Revivals? Special events?

9. _____ After the call is accepted

After the candidate accepts the position, the Church Health Director should be notified. The congregation should be informed of the acceptance as soon as it is received.

Moving arrangements should be carried out as agreed. If you are providing housing, you should make sure everything is ready. This would be completion of any re-decoration and cleaning. Also, you should make sure all utilities are secured.

You should make plans to introduce your new pastor to the community. This would be through newspaper, radio, and other appropriate means.

It is proper for the church leadership to plan a short dedication of the pastor as part of the morning worship service the first Sunday of new pastoral leadership.

A Long Obedience in the Same Direction: Discipleship in an Instant Society by Eugene H. Peterson

As a society, we are no less obsessed with the immediate than when Eugene Peterson first wrote this Christian classic. But Peterson's time-tested prescription for discipleship remains the same—a long obedience in the same direction. Tucked away in the Hebrew Psalter, Peterson discovered "an old dog-eared songbook," the Songs of Ascents that were sung by pilgrims on their way up to worship in Jerusalem. In these songs (Psalms 120-134) Peterson finds encouragement for modern pilgrims as we learn to grow in worship, service, joy, work, happiness, humility, community and blessing. This 20th anniversary edition of A Long Obedience in the Same Direction features these Psalms in Peterson's widely acclaimed paraphrase, The Message. He also includes an epilogue in which he reflects on the themes of this book and his ministry during the twenty years since its original publication. Publisher: IVP Books

Following the Master: A Biblical Theology of Discipleship by Michael J. Wilkins

What should a disciple of Jesus look and act like today? What is the relationship between discipleship and salvation, between discipleship and sanctification, between discipleship and ministry? How were disciples of Jesus different from other disciples in the ancient world? How did the early church carry out Jesus' agenda in "making disciples of all the nations"? In Following the Master, Michael J. Wilkins addresses these and many other questions that perplex the church today—not by offering another discipleship program or manual but by presenting a comprehensive biblical theology of discipleship. Following the Master compares other forms of master-disciple relationships in existence in the ancient Judaism and Greco-Roman world, traces Jesus' steps as he called and developed disciples, and Mediterranean world as it followed Jesus' command to make disciples. Following the Master lays the groundwork necessary for developing biblical discipleship ministries in the church, on the mission field, and in parachurch ministries. It is essential reading for all pastors, students, and Christian workers. Publisher: Zondervan

The Disciple Maker's Handbook: Seven Elements of a Discipleship Lifestyle by Bobby W. Harrington, Josh R. Patrick

Many people believe that discipleship is important, but they need help. In fact, the vast majority of Christians report that they have never been personally discipled by a more mature follower of Jesus. Is it any wonder that they have a difficult time knowing how to disciple others? If making disciples of Jesus is the greatest cause on earth, how should we equip people to do it? This handbook is a practical guide for how to embrace the discipleship lifestyle – being a disciple of Jesus and how to make other disciples of Jesus. With contributions from pastors and teachers like Francis Chan, Jeff Vanderstelt, Bill Hull, Jim Putman, KP Yohannan, and Robert Coleman, the authors present seven elements that are necessary for disciple making to occur:

- Jesus—the original disciple maker and centerpiece of discipleship.
- Holy Spirit—fuels the disciple-making process.
- Intentionality—making disciples utilizing a strategy and a roadmap.
- Relationships—creating a loving, genuine connection with others who trust and follow Jesus.
- Bible—using the Word of God as the manual for making disciples.
- Journey—forging a traceable growth story from a new birth to spiritual parenthood.
- Multiply—reproducing the discipleship process so that the disciple becomes a disciple maker.

Whether you are a parent who wants to disciple your children, a small group leader who wants to disciple those in your group, or a church leader who wants to disciple future leaders, the seven key elements in this handbook form a framework for understanding discipleship that can be applied in countless situations. In addition, there are questions provided in each section to help you think through how to apply the material to your disciple making efforts. Publisher: Zondervan

DiscipleShift: Five Steps That Help Your Church to Make Disciples Who Make Disciples by Jim Putnam

Over the last thirty years, many influential church leaders and church planters in America have adopted various models for reaching unchurched people. An “attractional” model will seek to attract people to a local church. Younger leaders may advocate a more “missional” approach, in which believers live and work among unchurched people and intentionally seek to serve like Christ. While each of these approaches have merit, something is still missing, something even more fundamental to the mission of the church: discipleship. Making disciples – helping people to trust and follow Jesus – is the church’s God-given mandate. Devoted disciples attract people outside the church because of the change others see in their Christ-like lives. And discipleship empowers Christians to be more like Christ as they intentionally develop relationship with non-believers. DiscipleShift walks you through five key “shifts” that churches must make to refocus on the biblical mission of discipleship. These intentional changes will attract the world and empower your church members to be salt and light in their communities. Publisher: Zondervan

Renovation of the Heart: Putting On the Character of Christ Paperback by Dallas Willard

As Christians, we know that we are new creations in Jesus. So we try to act differently, hoping this will make us more like Him. But changing our outward behavior doesn’t change our hearts. Only by God’s grace can we be transformed internally. Renovation of the Heart lays a biblical foundation for understanding what best-selling author Dallas Willard calls the “transformation of the spirit”—a divine process that “brings every element in our being, working from inside out, into harmony with the will of God.” This fresh approach to spiritual growth explains the biblical reasons why Christians need to undergo change in six aspects of life: thought, feeling, will, body, social context, and soul. Willard also outlines a general pattern of transformation in each area, not as a sterile formula but as a practical process that you can follow without the guilt or perfectionism so many Christians wrestle with. Don’t settle for complacency. Accept the challenge Renovation of the Heart offers to become an intentional apprentice of Jesus Christ, changing daily as you walk with Him. Publisher: NavPress

Celebration of Discipline: The Path to Spiritual Growth by Richard Foster

A newly repackaged and updated 40th anniversary edition of the timeless guide that has helped numerous seekers discover a richer spiritual life infused with joy, peace, and a deeper understanding of God, updated with a new introduction by the author and a new section: "Entering the Great Conversation about the Growth of the Soul." Hailed by many as the best modern book on Christian spirituality, Celebration of Discipline explores the "classic Disciplines," or central spiritual practices, of the Christian faith. Along the way, Foster shows that it is only by and through these practices that the true path to spiritual growth can be found. Dividing the Disciplines into three movements of the Spirit, Foster shows how each of these areas contribute to a balanced spiritual life. The inward Disciplines of meditation, prayer, fasting, and study offer avenues of personal examination and change. The outward Disciplines of simplicity, solitude, submission, and service help prepare us to make the world a better place. The corporate Disciplines of confession, worship, guidance, and celebration bring us nearer to one another and to God. Celebration of Discipline will help Christians everywhere to embark on a journey of prayer and spiritual growth.

The Connecting Church 2.0: Beyond Small Groups to Authentic Community by Randy Frazee

The development of meaningful relationships, where every member carries a significant sense of belonging, is central to what it means to be the church. So why do many Christians feel disappointed and disillusioned with their efforts to experience authentic community? Despite the best efforts of pastors, small group leaders, and faithful lay persons, church too often is a place of loneliness rather than connection. In this revised and updated version of his best-selling book, Randy Frazee shows us how church can be so much...better. More intimate and alive. The answer may seem radical today, but it was a central component of life in the early church. First-century Christians knew what it meant to live in vital community with one another, relating with a depth and commitment that made "the body of Christ" a perfect metaphor for the church. The content of Randy Frazee's book helps us reclaim the kind of love, joy, support, and dynamic spiritual growth necessary for a connecting church.

The Church as Movement: Starting and Sustaining Missional-Incarnational Communities by JR Woodward and Dan White Jr.

Public gatherings are vital for movement, but too often in our approach to planting churches, we haven't paid enough attention to the difficult grassroots work of movement: discipleship, community formation, and mission. This book will help you start missional-incarnational communities in a way that reflects the viral movement of the early New Testament church. JR Woodward (author of Creating a Missional Culture) and Dan White Jr. (author of Subterranean) have trained church planters all over North America to create movemental churches that are rooted in the neighborhood, based on eight necessary competencies: Movement Intelligence, Polycentric Leadership, Being Disciples, Making Disciples, Missional Theology, Ecclesial Architecture, Community Formation, and Incarnational Practices. The book features an interactive format with tools, exercises, and reflection questions and activities. It's ideal for church planting teams or discipleship groups to use together. It's not enough to understand why the church needs more missional and incarnational congregations. The Church as Movement will also show you how to make disciples that make disciples. This is the engine that drives the church as movement, so that everyday Christians can be present in the world to join God's mission in the way of Jesus.

Untamed: Reactivating a Missional Form of Discipleship by Alan and Debra Hirsch

In this provocative and compelling book, internationally known missiologists Alan and Debra Hirsch overthrow culturized understandings of theology and culture, and cast a vision for a distinctly mission-shaped way of living the Christian life. Written for any Christian serious about issue of discipleship, Untamed covers such topics as church, humans as bearers of the image of God, family life, culture, and sexuality. Through it all they seek to challenge us concerning how are we to think and live day to day as followers of Jesus.

Canoeing the Mountains: Christian Leadership in Uncharted Territory by Tod Bolsinger

Explorers Lewis and Clark had to adapt. While they had prepared to find a waterway to the Pacific Ocean, instead they found themselves in the Rocky Mountains. You too may feel that you are leading in a cultural context you were not expecting. You may even feel that your training holds you back more often than it carries you along. Drawing from his extensive experience as a pastor and consultant, Tod Bolsinger brings decades of expertise in guiding churches and organizations through uncharted territory. He offers a combination of illuminating insights and practical tools to help you re-imagine what effective leadership looks like in our rapidly changing world. If you're going to scale the mountains of ministry, you need to leave behind canoes and find new navigational tools. Now expanded with a study guide, this book will set you on the right course to lead with confidence and courage.

The Forgotten Ways: Reactivating the Missional Church by Alan Hirsch

Alan Hirsch is convinced that the inherited formulas for growing the Body of Christ do not work anymore. And rather than relying on slightly revised solutions from the past, he sees a vision of the future growth of the church coming about by harnessing the power of the early church--a movement which grew from as few as 25,000 adherents in AD 100 to up to 20 million 200 years later. Similar meteoric growth has also been recorded in history and is currently being in many apostolic movements throughout the world today. How do they do it? The Forgotten Ways proposes the concept of Apostolic Genius as a way to understand what caused the church to experience exponential growth and impact at various times in history, interpreting it for use in our own time and place. From the theological underpinnings to the practical application, Hirsch takes the reader through this dynamic mixture of passion, prayer, and incarnational practice to rediscover the dormant potential of the modern church in the West.

The Tangible Kingdom: Creating Incarnational Community by Hugh Halter and Matt Smay

Written for those who are trying to nurture authentic faith communities and for those who have struggled to retain their faith, The Tangible Kingdom offers theological answers and real-life stories that demonstrate how the best ancient church practices can re-emerge in today's culture, through any church of any size. In this remarkable book, Hugh Halter and Matt Smay "two missional leaders and church planters" outline an innovative model for creating thriving grass-roots faith communities.

UnChristian: What a New Generation Really Thinks about Christianity ... and Why It Matters by Gabe Lyons and David Kinnamon

Groundbreaking research into the perceptions of people aged 16-29 reveals that Christians have taken several giant steps backward in one of their most important assignments. The surprising details of the study, commissioned by the Fermi Project and conducted by The Barna Group, are presented with uncompromising honesty in unChristian. Find out why these negative perceptions exist, learn how to reverse them in a Christlike manner, and discover practical examples of how Christians can positively contribute to culture.
