It was a time of great celebration on Sunday, January 15th, as Pastor John Ryser and his wife Phyllis shared at Damascus Friends' annual Vision Night. This past year year of ministry as they press forward to continue shining God's light in their area.

Thank You For Your Servant's Heart

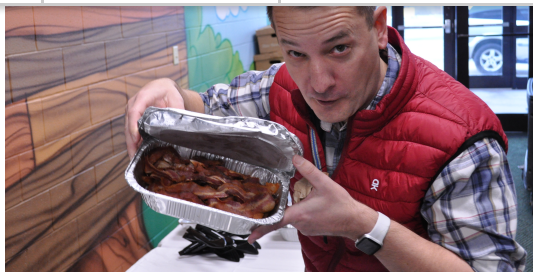

Our prayers and best wishes go with Vance and Amanda Weeks as they now serve at Mt. Zion Church in Beavercreek, Oh. Vance and Amanda have a long history with EFC-ER including serving over fifteen years at Brewster, five years at Raisin Valley, and one year at North Olmsted. Vance also served on the Pension and Youth boards. Please pray for them and their two sons in this time of transition.

May the Lord bless you and keep you and cause his face to shine upon you.

Over 75 men gathered Jan 28 at Canton First Friends for a delicious breakfast and challenge to intentionally gather with two other men for spiritual growth and accountability. We look forward to seeing the fruit from this initiative.

"As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another."
